

Green Entrepreneur

Green jobs and green businesses contribute to preserving or restoring environmental quality, while supporting economic advancement and social equity. Green businesses seek to protect the environment by reducing the overuse of natural resources and carbon-based energy generation while minimizing waste and pollution.

These educational programs offer YOU the chance to be part of exciting and profitable careers that contribute to a healthier, more beautiful, and more equal world for present and future generations.

This certificate program teaches the principles of developing a successful green business plan. This program will introduce detailed scenarios of green initiatives as well as provide the opportunity to conduct research and interviews of those who have been successful in adopting the green initiative within the industry.
