26TH ANNUAL COLLEGE & CAREER EXPO COMING TO SOUTH SUBURBAN COLLEGE SEPTEMBER 23RD

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL—Career Development System (CDS) is holding their 26th annual College & Career Expo at South Suburban College (SSC) on Wednesday, September 23, 2015, from 5:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m., in the Fitness Center. The Expo is an excellent opportunity for 8th grade, high school and SSC students, along with their parents, to explore a wide range of college and career options at one time, in one location. Admission and parking are FREE and the event is conveniently located at SSC's Main Campus in South Holland.

This cooperative venture is designed to provide the most current information available regarding post-secondary educational opportunities across the country. More than 120 universities, colleges, technical school, armed forces, and construction trades will be featured. Career programs available at SSC will be highlighted. Additionally, counselors will be on hand to help direct students and parents and Junior Achievement and ISAC (Illinois Student Assistance Corps) will be in attendance.

The College & Career Expo is open to all residents of the area who are interested in furthering their education.

For more information, visit the CDS website at: www.CareerDevelopmentSystem.org. SSC is located 15800 South State Street, South Holland, Illinois.
