Tuition Waiver Award for Art & Design Majors

The South Suburban College Board of Trustees sponsors the Art and Design Department's Tuition Waiver Awards each semester. It is open to current and returning South Suburban College art majors, as well as high school seniors and transfer students who plan to major in Art and Design. These awards are based on talent, merit and need. Students granted an Art and Design Tuition Waiver must follow the curriculum guide in the current college catalogue for Art, Graphic Design, Art Education or Art History. Tuition waivers are renewable through application every semester.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Matriculated into South Suburban College with asset testing completed.

- Completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

- Declared Major in one of the following curricula: Associate of Art (AA in Art), Associate of Fine Art (AFA), Associate of Applied Science (AAS) in Graphic Design or Education Major (Art).

- Register as a full-time student

- Maintain a college wide 2.5 GPA and 3.5 GPA in Art and Design courses.

Required Application Materials:

- Completed Tuition Waiver Application Form. The information on the second page of this document must be completed in full.

- Cover letter stating academic and professional goals. This letter should include your contact information, a paragraph describing a plan of study, degree program and estimated graduation year.

- Digital portfolio consisting of 10 recent art works. List title, media, size, date of completion, jpeg format. These should be the best pieces you produced in any medium, e.g.: painting, sculpture, photography, drawing, or digital

- Current students must submit a referral from a South Suburban College Art & Design faculty member. Transfer students and high school students can submit a referral from a faculty member from their institution with contact information. (A letter of recommendation is not required.)

- Submit all completed application materials in digital formats to Eric Tucker.
